Future Forward is a curated exhibition featuring contemporary artists who imagine the future through speculation, reflection, and creative vision,. Exploring cultural, spiritual, environmental, technological, or human evolution through their own unique lens 10, 20, 50, or even 100 years from now. This exhibition focuses on forward-looking ideas and imaginative possibility, rather than present-day commentary.

Artwork can be NFS, or if for sale will be available for purchase in person at the gallery and online at www.thearttrust.org. See below for important exhibit dates. Any questions about exhibit intent, participation etc. can be directed to exhibit curator: Law Blank (law@lawblankstudios.com)

PLEASE NOTE: All care will be taken to ensure the safety of your work. However, neither The Art Trust nor Meridian Bank will be responsible for work that is lost, stolen, or damaged. You may want to consider self-insuring your work. Any work not picked up within 2 weeks of exhibit closing becomes the property of The Art Trust.

About The Art Trust:

The Art Trust is a charitable, volunteer-based art organization that promotes and cultivates the exploration of a contemporary aesthetic for the benefit of artists and the community. Made possible by the support of our corporate sponsor, Meridian Bank, net proceeds from the sale of art fund scholarships to high school seniors continuing their study of fine art at institutions of higher learning.
